About Stewart Laing

With nearly 50 years of whisky industry experience, Scotch Master Stewart Hunter Laing has done it all:

- Decades of amassing whisky wisdom with his father Frederick Douglas Laing and brother Fred Laing at Douglas Laing & Co.
- Won the Queen's Award for Export Achievement.
- Industry recognition for innovation in Scotch blending, marketing and packaging.

One might think that in his mid-sixties, Mr. Laing might be anticipating an imminent retirement with a glow of accomplishment and whisky appreciation. Far from it!

Mr. Laing can now add "entrepreneur" to his resume, after launching Hunter Laing & Co. Ltd., in partnership with his sons Andrew and Scott. Hunter Laing blends and bottles some of the finest Scotch Whiskies in the world, including their own luxury brands:

- Single malt: Old Malt Cask, Old & Rare, Douglas of Drumlanrig
- Blended: Douglas Blend, John Player Special, Langside, House of Peers, and recently released Highland Journey; Cragabus and Mac Spey – two blended malt Scotch Whiskies exclusive to VOM FASS
- Single grain: Sovereign

Hunter Laing whisky stock includes hundreds of casks that Frederick purchased for blending from distilleries all over Scotland – many of which, sadly, have long since closed.

Mr. Laing is also a charming, entertaining story-teller who knows more than his fair share of industry secrets and scandals! We are pleased and honored to welcome Mr. Laing to VOM FASS Twin Cities!
